

INTRODUCTORY AFFILIATE MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

The undersigned hereby applies on behalf of for Introductory Affiliate Membership in the Building Owners and Managers Association of Chicago and agrees, if approved, to conform to such rules, regulations, bylaws, policies and agreements as applicable to his/her class of membership.

This category of membership provides smaller companies, startups and businesses new to the market a path to building a local presence. Membership privileges include the opportunity to attend all BOMA/Chicago events, network with commercial property management professionals, sponsor events and advertise on our website. Additionally, your company will be listed in our Affiliate Member Directory.

The Introductory Affiliate membership does not require letters of recommendation and may only be renewed once. Introductory Affiliates have the term to obtain the required referral letters needed to transfer into full membership. This membership does not give access to our Building Member Directory but your company will be listed in the Affiliate Member Directory. All annual dues are pro-rated after October 1.
